Spelling Words & Vocabulary

Due to the short week and MAP testing, there will be no spelling or reading test this week.

Teacher Notes:

- Picture Day – September 21st
- No spelling or reading test this week
- Please encourage your child to read for AR points. Yellow slips containing your child's AR level and AR goal went home last week. I'm so proud of how many tests the students took last week.
- Please check your child's planner each night to view the assigned homework.

What we are learning this week:
